

Rethinking Our Identity
Thought-Provoking Questions

1. Reflecting on your entire experience at UCV, remember a time when you felt most engaged, alive, and motivated. Who was involved? What did you do? How did it feel? What happened?
2. What are the healthiest, most life-giving aspects of the relationships among people at UCV? What would you say has been most valuable about your friendships in this community? Have certain groups been valuable to you? What would you say is most important about how we relate to each other? Give some examples of how we live together at our best.
3. What are the most valuable aspects of our congregation's worship? In your Sunday services and other worship experiences at UCV, what contributes the most to making your worship alive and meaningful? When worship is at its best, how does it shape us? What shapes your Unitarian faith?
4. What do you believe are the most important and meaningful elements of our congregation's engagement with the local community, the nation, and the world? Describe one or more times when UCV was most faithful to Unitarian values and principles in how we relate to, work in, and act as witness in our community.
5. What are the most important things our Unitarian community has contributed to your life? Who or what made a difference?
6. What are the most valuable ways you contribute to our congregation – your personality, your perspectives, your skills, your activities, your character? Don't be humble – this is important information. Give some examples.
7. What do you think is the most important, life-giving characteristic of our UCV congregation? When we are at our best, what is the single most important value or characteristic that makes Unitarians or UCV unique?
8. Make three wishes for the future of our Vancouver Unitarians congregation. Describe what this religious community would look like as these wishes come true.
